"The best way to get rid of a bad law is to enforce it." - General Grant.

A St. Louis clergyman says that the earth will pass away before the year 2000. But unfortunately, says The Chicago Post, he neglects to state which one of the several claimants who are after it will get it.

UNCLE SAM has an "anxiliary" Naval fleet of sixty-four merchant vessels, one or a dozen of these Suites at $15 98 each. which can be converted into armored cruisers with 892 guns. What's the When this is done, our regular war vessels could have a whole lot of fun with the Dons-by capturing every ships they had and towing them into port. However, this is only a "land lubber's" idea of Naval warfare, and there's no patent on it.

SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER, a distinguished Confederate General and ex-Governor of this state, was a few days McKinley's course in the Spanish contreversy; and here's what he said:

"As far as it is apparent to the public his course merits general approval. their marriage Wednesday. As the executive head of the Government he recognizes his duty to maintain peace as long as it is to be done with honor. He has very properly avoided hasty action and seems determined that our action shall be so just that it will meet with the approbation of the civilized world. He has himself witnessed the horrors of war, and does not desire to plunge his country needlessly into an armed contest with any other Nationality. As the responsible head of a great Government, he feels that he has no right to subordinate his patriotic duties to a manufactured publie clamor."

PATRIOTIC CATHOLICS.

Lexington Y. M. I. Unanimously Indorse President McKinley's Course Toward Spain.

At a recent session of the Y. M. I. at Lexington these resolutions were adopted unanimously: WHEREAS, War between Spain and our beloved country seems inevitable; there-

Resolved. That while we deplore was and its awful results, we feel there is a limit to treachery and injustice: that life and property must be protected; home and justice held sacred and inviolable.

Resolved, That in their defense and protection we stand as a unit with our President and Congress in whatever action they may take.

Resolved, That we look upon the cool, conservative course of our President as the truest test of a good man, a wise executive and unflinching soldier and patriot.
